

Douglas A. Ducey
Governor

Office of the Governor

WITH SPECIAL RECOGNITION

WHEREAS, on July 26, 1990, President George H.W. Bush signed into law the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) to ensure the civil rights of persons with disabilities were supported and exercised; and

WHEREAS, the legislation established a clear and comprehensive national mandate for the elimination of discrimination against persons with disabilities; and

WHEREAS, the ADA has expanded opportunities for Americans with disabilities by reducing barriers, changing perceptions, and increasing full participation in community life; and

WHEREAS, it is imperative that the great State of Arizona remain committed to the ADA's core values of equal opportunity, full participation and economic self-sufficiency for persons with disabilities.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Douglas A. Ducey, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby recognize July 26, 2015 as the 25th Anniversary of the Americans with Disabilities Act.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Arizona

Douglas A. Ducey
GOVERNOR

DONE at the Capitol in Phoenix on this thirteenth day of May in the year Two Thousand and Fifteen and of the Independence of the United States of America the Two Hundred and Thirty-ninth.
