

DECLARATION OF EMERGENCY
Pipeline Fire

WHEREAS, on June 12, 2022, a human-caused wildfire, subsequently named the Pipeline Fire, started within Coconino County, approximately 6 miles north of Flagstaff; and

WHEREAS, the fire has burned more than 22,000 acres and continues to burn; and

WHEREAS, warm and windy conditions have caused very active fire behavior; and

WHEREAS, the fire has resulted in a Fire Management Assistance Grant (FMAG) declaration (FM-5441-AZ) on June 12, 2022; and

WHEREAS, a Type 1 Incident Management Team has been requested and is anticipated to take responsibility for the Pipeline Fire on June 16, 2022, as well as for the nearby Haywire Fire; and

WHEREAS, the Governor is authorized to declare an emergency pursuant to A.R.S. § 26-303(D).

NOW, THEREFORE I, Douglas A. Ducey, Governor of the State of Arizona, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and Laws of the State, do hereby determine that this situation justifies a declaration of a State of Emergency, pursuant to A.R.S. § 26-303(D), and I do hereby:

- a. Declare that a State of Emergency exists in Coconino County, due to fire, effective June 12, 2022, and continuing; and
- b. Direct that the sum of $200,000 from the general fund be made available to the Director of the Arizona Division of Emergency Management to be expended in accordance with A.R.S. § 35-192, A.A.C. R8-2-301 to 321, and Executive Order 79-4; and
- c. Direct that the State of Arizona Emergency Response and Recovery Plan be used to direct and control state and other assets and authorize the Director of the Arizona Division of Emergency Management to coordinate state assets.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Arizona.

GOVERNOR

DONE at the Capitol in Phoenix on this sixteenth day of June in the Year Two Thousand Twenty-two and of the independence of the United States of America the Two Hundred and Forty-Sixth.

ATTEST:

Secretary of State
