Re: HB2428

Speaker Toma:

I have vetoed HB2428.

While I agree with the importance of addressing the state's teacher shortage and value the role the private universities are playing to educate aspiring teachers in the state, this bill did not include an appropriation to support its implementation. Expanding the program to serve students attending private universities requires an additional investment beyond what has been allocated in the FY24 budget.

Sincerely,

Katie Hobbs
Governor
State of Arizona
